

Summer Reading Choices for Students Entering Grade 10

All students are required to read TWO of the following books. There will be graded assessments to complete at the start of the year that will require familiarity with the book.

Plan in advance!

- All titles are available – new, used, and as E-books – at most online book retailers. Shop around for the cheapest price! (Used books can cost as little as $4.00 with shipping on Amazon.)
- Before you drive to your local bookstore, call to see if it is in stock.
- The Buffalo library has limited quantities of each title.

Disclaimers:

- Some selections are focused toward mature readers. We encourage parents to read the book descriptions carefully with their children and assist them in selecting interesting, appropriate titles for their summer reading.
- Film versions exist for some of these titles. While it is okay to watch the movie versions in conjunction with the text, it is not okay to assume that watching the movie version is a substitute for reading.

Book Title and Author	Description	Difficulty Level	Availability
Room Emma Donoghue	 To five-year-old Jack, Room is the entire world. It is where he was born and grew up; it's where he lives with his Ma as they learn and read and eat and sleep and play. At night, his Ma shuts him safely in the wardrobe, where he is meant to be asleep when Old Nick visits.	Straight Ahead An exciting story with easy to follow language and plot.
