5th Grade Summer Reading Assignment

5th grade is going to be an exciting year filled with a lot of reading and writing. We want to be sure that you are ready to start the year off on the right foot, so it is critical to continue to read over the summer.

Choose from one of the books below. Read it and then choose one assignment from the choice board on back to complete. The assignment will count as your very first project grade of the quarter.

Assignment due date: Tuesday, September 15, 2020 and Wednesday, September 16, 2020

Books you may choose from:

1. Fever 1793 by Laurie Halse Anderson
2. Blended by Sharon Draper
3. Ghost Boys by Jewell Parker Rhodes *
*Terrific book with a powerful message; deals with racial injustice, so parents please be advised.
4. The War That Saved My Life by Kimberly Brubaker Bradley

Project Book Choice Board

After reading your book, create a picture book version of the story. (Include the most important events from the book and illustrate them in order.) It must be in color and look like a book.	Imagine your book is being made into a movie. Create a movie poster that includes visuals and a summary of the book. Give the book a star rating (4 stars is the best, 1 star is not so great). It must be in color.
Create a t-shirt which represents the book. Prepare a book talk which goes with the t-shirt (your book talk should include a summary of the book, favorite parts and why the class should (or should not) read the book. You will present your book talk (and show off your t-shirt) to the rest of the class.	Imagine the book had a hidden scene (In any part of the story). Write the scene as it would fit into the book. TWO page minimum.

Projects require PIRR, so make sure it reflects your best work, it is neat and shows you put forth effort. This is your first chance to make a good impression!

Late projects will not be accepted.
