

Tapestry High School Summer Reading 2021

Stamped: Racism, Antiracism, and You

A “Tapestry Reads Together” Selection

Summer reading directions:

Read Stamped: Racism, Antiracism, and You by the first day of the 2021-2022 school year. When you return to school in September, your English teacher will be providing assignments based on the book.

*Copies of the book are being provided by Tapestry Charter School. These books will be given on loan, and must be returned this fall.

About the book:

“This remarkable reimagining of Dr. Ibram X. Kendi’s National Book Award-winning Stamped from the Beginning reveals the history of racist ideas in America, and inspires hope for an antiracist future. It takes you on a race journey from then to now, shows you why we feel how we feel, and why the poison of racism lingers. It also proves that while racist ideas have always been easy to fabricate and distribute, they can also be discredited.”

Praise for Stamped:

#1 New York Times bestseller
Wall Street Journal bestseller
2020 Kirkus Prize finalist
A TIME Magazine Ten Best Children’s and YA Books of the Year
A Parents Magazine best book of the year
